Scholarship Myths

Myth #1

“I don't have the marks!”

86% of awards do not require an academic average on ScholarshipsCanada!

Myth #2

“There is a lot of competition!”

59% of scholarship administrators would like more applications.

3% of scholarships received no applications at all!

Myth #3

“Only schools give scholarships!”

10,000+ scholarships are awarded by non-educational administrators (corporations, associations, trade unions, religious organizations, etc.)

Myth #4

“Scholarship deadlines are
in the spring!”

Scholarship, bursary and contest deadlines are throughout the year!

Myth #5

“I’m not in financial need!”

Only 32% of scholarships require you to be in financial need on ScholarshipsCanada!

Remember...

- ✓ Scholarships, bursaries and contests are often not based on marks.
- ✓ There is an award for you.
- ✓ More than just schools award scholarships.
- ✓ Deadlines are year round.
- ✓ You don't need to be in financial need.

There's a

Where To Start?

Before you begin your search for scholarships, take some time to think about these factors:

- Year of Study (entrance, first, second, third, fourth, final year, graduate)
- Personal Circumstances (amputee, brain injury, foster child, parent, etc.)
- Financial Need (pertains to your income; check with the scholarship administrator for more details)
- Academic Average (your most recent grades)

Where To Start?

Other factors to consider:

- Heritage (Aboriginal, Chinese, Polish, etc.)
- Field of Study (the program you're interested or currently in)
- Affiliation (companies, religious groups, unions, and associations, that you or your family are affiliated with)
- Activities (sports, religious, academic, leadership, community involvement, etc.)
- Location (where you live and go to school)

It's easy.
